

Langhorne Creek Pre-Season Field Day

You are invited...

pre-season field discussion
and soil pit inspections.

LANGHORNE REGION
CREEK
WINE

Should you attend?

- ▶ Are you ready for season 17/18?
- ▶ What should you be doing now to prepare for pests and diseases?
- ▶ Do you really know your soils?
- ▶ What is your soil refill point?
- ▶ How can Eto help you?
- ▶ Do you get the most out of irrigation scheduling.
- ▶ Do you just do what your neighbour does?
- ▶ How well do you connect weather patterns with management decisions?
- ▶ Do you use data to see where you have been, or look forward to what you could do?
- ▶ Do you want a free morning tea and sticky beak at someone else's block?

You should definitely come along!

Full vineyard entry protocols will be observed.

When:

Thursday

September 14, 2017

8:30am - 12:00pm

Where:

Kimbolton

29 Burleigh St, Langhorne Creek

Morning tea provided

Registration required:

Contact Lian Jaensch
info@langhornecreek.com
Ph: (08) 8537 3362

It's Free!

Government of South Australia
South Australian Murray-Darling Basin
Natural Resources Management Board

Natural Resources
SA Murray-Darling Basin

This project is supported by the South Australian Murray-Darling Basin Natural Resources Management Board through funding from the Australian Government's National Landcare Programme and the NRM Levies

Langhorne Creek Pre-Season Field Day

Program:

- 8:30am: Registration, footbaths.
(Lian Jaensch, LCGW) - 30mins
- 9:00am: Viti Tech update; getting ready to tackle pests and diseases.
(Jenny Venus, Landmark-Strathalbyn) - 45mins
- 9:45am: Morning tea - 20mins
- 10:05am: Eto App - 25mins
(Michael Cutting, SA MDB NRM)
- 10:30am: Walk to soil pits - 10mins
- 10:40am: Soils pit inspections, fill points,
scheduling, making
connections, forward planning.
(Adam Brown, Red Earth Soil Tech)
- 1hr, 20mins
- 12:00pm: Wrap up & depart.

Government of South Australia
South Australian Murray-Darling Basin
Natural Resources Management Board

Natural Resources
SA Murray-Darling Basin

This project is supported by the South Australian Murray-Darling Basin Natural Resources Management Board through funding from the Australian Government's National Landcare Programme and the NRM Levies

Strict Vineyard Entry Biosecurity Protocols will apply.

- Sign in.
- 60 second foot bath.
- Designated parking.
- Shoe 'booties'.
- Follow all instructions and signage.
- 'Nagging' (aka supervising) person - Lian Jaensch.

You have been warned!

No thongs. No socks and sandals. Wear freshly cleaned clothes or wear a 'Teletubby' suit!